Westfield Aesthetics in Birmingham are a cosmetic skin clinic, providing a wide range of cosmetic treatments and non-surgical treatments such as, dermal fillers, lip fillers, anti-wrinkle injections, chemical peels, pigmentation treatment, hyperhidrosis treatment and so much more! Our aesthetics clinic realise you need to keep to a budget which is why we will always give you honest and reliable advice at your free initial consultation.

ABOUT US

Our philosophy is to provide a high quality, personal and clinically safe service to our clients. We realise that, although these procedures are made famous by wealthy celebrities, our clients are normal people. We know that you want to make the most of yourself, yet not alter your face beyond recognition; you want to increase your self-esteem, to feel proud of yourself and why not?

In the current financial climate, however, we also realise that you need to keep to a budget and we can help you do that by giving you honest and reliable advice at your initial free consultation. If we don't think you need to have any treatments, we'll let you know! After your treatment we offer a free follow up consultation to assess the results.

OUR DOCTOR

Dr Prasanna Narayan is an experienced and highly qualified doctor who graduated from the University of Birmingham in 1996. She has since worked within the NHS, training across medical and surgical specialties, and completed her specialist training in 2001, when she achieved MRCGP with Distinction. She still works as a GP. Prasanna undertook cosmetic training on Harley Street in London and has been practising aesthetic medicine since 2007. The repertoire of treatments she offers are comprehensive, allowing you to get a full “face makeover”. Prasanna will provide your initial free consultation and take the time to listen to your needs, concerns and expectations before suggesting suitable treatment. Post treatment advice and follow up is all just part of this personal service. You can rest assured that you’re in safe hands. welcome to westfield aesthetics Westfield Aesthetics is a cosmetic medical clinic based in Edgbaston, Birmingham.
