Having a home-based business with an option to generate a passive income that can be passed from generation to generation is not a new concept. However, never in the history of our country has the concept been so prevalent and is fast becoming the norm rather than the exception! The reason is remarkably simple. The modern work from home concept along with social media and tremendous connection building and networking opportunity is providing people with what they want; control of their time and financial opportunities proportionate to their abilities and effort. Building a residual income is a little like flying a big jet. It takes a lot of fuel to get it off the ground, but once it has arrived at elevation and it has reached altitude, it can reduce and fly on a fraction of the fuel required for take-offs. The enormous distinction is that a residual income can "fly" forever with a little refueling along the way. The revenue stream can be passed from generation to generation. With the right work-from-home opportunities and business with the extremely powerful source for passive income generation in three-to- five-years, one has all the benefits and advantages of a true business potential and unlimited financial opportunity usually associated with a large traditional business.
