Established for more than 60 years, we are one of Europe's leading suppliers of industrial fastening products and services supplying over 3,000 customers via a network of UK and European locations. We are here to help you get the most out of your products by problem-solving through the design of technical products and services that improve your design, assembly, or process, and enable you to generate more profit for your company. Whilst we offer advice we also listen and endeavour to provide a level of service tailor-made to your specific requirements. With quality a number one priority, we continually invest in the right people and products so that we can provide the superior market knowledge and customer service our customers demand.
