Developed for men and women from all walks of life, Jericho Cosmetics use gentleness of nature to soothe, revitalise and rejuvenate your skin so you can carry your beauty with confidence. JERICO is a well-known, established and proven brand which story started in 1982. It is the first skincare brand that brought therapeutic and cosmetic benefits of Dead Sea minerals to customers. Unique product formulas are developed in collaboration with leading dermatologists following extensive research, testing, continuous improvements and enhancements. All products are ISO and GMP certified, and approved by the FDA. None of our products contain Paraben and animal ingredients, and have not been tested on animals.
