Blending past, present and progressive, a place where retro chic and pop-art collide. Taking its design cues from the days of disco, rock gods and retro glamour, the vibe of Ovolo South Yarra is bold, creative and unpredictable. All mods. Zero cons. Each room infuses retro-plush, with accents of chrome and colour, including four Rockstar suites – named after the era’s most iconic, lyrical lovers. Feed your soul at a unique Ovolo kitchen & bar concept, inspired by fresh and locally-sourced produce, ethical eating and conscious cuisine. Alongside seasonal cocktails and wines sourced from some of Australia’s most progressive producers. South Yarra – the cosmopolitan corner of Melbourne – has always had a rep for setting trends as a cultural hub of food, art and fashion. It's the ultimate place for stepping out in style and living life as it should be.
